JOHN MASON, THOMAS SWANN, } Com'rs. JOHN P. VAN NESS, } November 27-28 Saw 25/Jan

Fauquier Lands, THE subscriber offers for sale the Estate whereon he resides in the county of Fauquier, about 8 miles below the court-house, on Cedar Run, between the roads leading to Fredericksburgh and Occoquan, 50 miles distant from either place, and 40 to Alexandria by the turnpike, from Buckland. The tract is computed at Three thousand three hundred and seventy Acres, and is divided into three farms, with Woodland and Meadows, conveniently distributed for each. There is a Valuable Mill Seat, with stone on the spot for building. The stream is abundant, and waters the whole tract, presenting an extent of Four or five hundred Acres of Low Grounds of first quality. The high land is well divided into regular fields, some of them very productive, and is adapted to the use of Plaster. Few tracts can possess greater advantages either for extensive grazing or grain culture.

The purchaser or purchasers of the land, can be accommodated with the farming utensils, the crops of Corn and the sown Wheat—the stock of Cattle, Horses, Sheep and Hogs; and with the Negroes on the estate in families, making about 150, of a very valuable description, with some tradesmen.

The improvements are a comfortable Dwelling House, with good out Houses, Ice Houses, Stables, &c. The situation is healthy and the water uncommonly good. Two thirds of the whole purchase money will be required at the delivery of the property, the balance in short payments with interest and secured by deed of trust.

December 6-9

Union Bank, ALEXANDRIA, 20th Dec. 1816.

ON or after the first of January next, Stockholders in this institution who have paid up the several instalments called for, may receive from the profits of the last six months, a dividend of four per cent. on the money paid in by them respectively. By order,

C. T. Chapman, Cash'r. December 28

Mr. Harrison, asked if it was com-ten for the Treasurer and the Executive to say what is usury. The summonses, &c. ? Does not the bank charter say who are to be directors and can any new qualifications be put on the office? Mr. H. contended, that it was best to be done with the measure and together, as it was only calculated to bring down the house the smile of indignation and contempt.

Mr. Banks moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Gray was not for letting the matter so honorable a death. Shall we suspend the Governor or the Treasurer, who are known to be honorable men, to be capable of appointing dishonest and disreputable Directors.

Mr. Daddridge agreed with the speaker; what is this common fame for which men are to be condemned? If some of us, said he, were to use the language of denunciation; if, as we have been to be the case, some of us were being the names of men upon this floor for the purpose of doing a wrong, who were thus to attack me, who cannot defend myself on this floor, we may indeed create a common fame for ourselves.
And well has it been said, that common fame was a common law. Mr. D. contended, that these resolutions would do very an indignation upon the late government (to whom he paid the highest eulogium in a reproach upon the Treasurer, a reproach upon the present directors.

Mr. Colston disclaimed the idea of the confidence in a public officer, in whom it might confide as a man, but not in official character. He argued that the resolutions did not convey the imputations which were upon the late government. He stated that he was not to believe that there were some persons in the office of director; that this practice was more baneful in a bank director than in any other; because he was acting in accord with the wants of the people, who know how to profit by these acts, and it was more in his power to draw money from the bank for his purpose.

Mr. Blackburn would vote for either of these resolutions: the first rather than the last; because the first goes as far as it ought; the distinction between usury and having was some, not only a common parlance, but he believed in the courts; (he was not one of those men who had any legislative confidence, though he had nothing disrespectful to say of the Treasurer or the Executive).

Mr. Tucker said, with the precedents set before him by preceding legislation, instructing the Treasury to vote for many republicans for the directory, he could not refuse to vote for the present resolution. He preferred the substantial because it excluded a rent term which the other had adopted, and he did not want to disgrace the journal by such candid phrases.

The question was then taken on laying the resolutions on the table, and last night.

The question on adding the substantial to the resolutions was carried in the affirmative.

The substitute was then agreed to, yeas 65, ayes 46. And the house adjourned at a late hour.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.

We are happy to learn, by the late arrival at Newport, that the late report of the death of Capt. Downes, of the Navy, now in the Mediterranean, proves to be without foundation. Errors of paper cannot be too cautious in originating reports of this kind. To the parents and friends of Capt. Downes, whose residence is but a few miles from this place, the late report has occasioned inexpressible sorrows.

ALEXANDRIA.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 9.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT
AT WASHINGTON.
Wednesday, Jan. 8.

The principal topic of yesterday's discussions in the house of representatives was Mr. Forsyth's resolution respecting the national bank, which you will find in your own paper, as I gave you a verbatim copy of it in my letter. That gentleman called it up this day, and moved the house to adopt it. The grounds of the business as far as I have been able to collect them, are as follows: The president and directors of that institution having good reason to suspect that a vast number of subscribers to it might be unable to pay in the appointed time, that portion of their second instalment which the act of charter had directed to be paid in specie, and that many of them might think it less injurious to them to submit to the forfeiture prescribed by the law, than procure specie at the expense which such a vast demand at that crisis would place upon it, thought it would be more liberal and fair as well as expedient to accept in lieu of specie, the notes of those subscribers, backed by a pledge of stock, to be forfeited in cases of non-payment in 60 days. They thought themselves the better warranted in doing this, because by the law, as soon as the bank should go into operation, those stockholders might borrow from the bank, as an accommodation to the amount of their specie deposits; and with that make it good.
And they probably did this with the less reluctance, because they had given to the public and congress, such unequivocal proofs of a determination to furnish their coffers with specie, sufficient to answer all the purposes for which the bank was created, by sending over to Europe, an agent for the express purpose of buying bullion and specie. In order to stir that transaction to the bottom, and to bring the eye of the national legislature to bear upon it, with disapprobation and censure, Mr. Forsyth brought forward that resolution on Monday, and yesterday pressed its adoption, with all his might.

He was supported by Messrs. Robertson, Ross and Root; and though opposed by Mr. Calhoun, Mr. Grosvenor, Mr. Ingham and General Smith, completely succeeded in his purpose, his resolution being adopted by 89 ayes to 68 noes: for, at the instance of Mr. Forsyth, the question was taken by ayes and noes.

After that, a motion was made for the house again to resolve itself into a committee of the whole on "the bill to amend the law of last session authorizing compensation for property lost, captured or destroyed by the enemy," otherwise called "the claim act," and sometimes Mr. Lee's act. The house, probably on account of the lateness of the hour or the still stronger claims of hunger, negatived the motion; when, behold, mirabile dictu, a motion was made to discharge the committee from the further consideration of that bill, which was without the least apparent reluctance granted by the house; and so there ended the functions of that committee. For my part I could not help exclaiming to myself on the occasion, as I looked down upon the actors in it from the Gallery, "What a quantity of fine talk and time has been expended here for nothing but the pleasure of wasting it!"

It is stated, that in the course of one year, since the war, more than twelve thousand new settlers, almost exclusively from the eastern states, have established themselves within the limits of the state of New York, west of the Genesee river.

Extract to a Commercial House in Baltimore, dated

New York, Jan. 4.

"Gentlemen—Captain Oliver, of the schr. Intrepid, lately arrived from Buenos Ayres and Monte Video, happening in our counting room last evening, gave us an opportunity of making the enquiry requested in yours, relative to the ship Sampson. She had gone in ballast from Buenos Ayres to Monte Video, where he was to load, as no apprehensions whatever were entertained for the safety of American property in case the Portuguese expedition took possession, either quietly or forcibly of that place. Captain Oliver is an intelligent discreet man, and is we think, to be relied upon.

We questioned him as to the probability of the Portuguese naval force interrupting the commerce with Buenos Ayres; he thinks there is not the least danger of any interruption whatever, as it seemed to be well understood at Buenos Ayres, that the Portuguese expedition was to be directed against Artigas's government on the Monte Videan side of that river, he, Artigas, being unwilling to submit to the acts of the Buenos Ayres congress.
An evident misunderstanding existed between the governments, and it was generally supposed, that the latter had engaged to furnish no aid whatever to the former, on condition that the trade to Buenos Ayres was to meet no interruption whatever from the Portuguese.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in Boston, dated United States, ship Washington, Gibraltar Bay, November 14.

I wrote you from Gibraltar, July 7th.
At that time we spent a week here, and then proceeded along the south shore of Ireland, arrived at Naples, July 13th, after having a swift passage of 5 days.
At Naples we spent a great part of the summer. I was on shore as much as I pleased, and became acquainted with sufficiently many of the nobility, clergy literary men and artists. I was honored with the strict intimacy of several of the most noted men of learning, and received personal attentions far beyond what I had a right to expect. Every place worth seeing was opened to me, every wish was gratified. I attended Vesuvius, explored Herulanum and Pompeii, examined the Catacombs, wandered over the ruins of Puteoli and Baiae, dined at the tomb of Virgil, visited every sacred lake and grotto, and examined churches and convents and cottages, palaces and museums of antiquities, public and private, and medals and statues and paintings without end. Every spot hallowed by classical associations was familiar to me, and I learned much of living manners. When on the 9th of August, the edifices of the city and scenery of the bay began to fade from view, with Sannazarius under the same circumstances, I exclaimed, "Sennazarius! what cultured sage, dignified Sibyl! Poesy and account of Naples, see Kotzebue's Travels, and especially Entree's Tour, for whose accuracy of description and correctness of judgment, I can vouch. I should have known much less of the Neapolitans, but for an Italian gentleman, received on board our ship as Teacher of French and Italian. Latin was the only language understood by us both.

We were becalmed near the Islands of Bojia, among which Stromboli is most conspicuous, emitting at that time only smoke. We anchored at Messina Aug.
31. Bryond's description of the straits is best. Here we staid 3 weeks, and I believe, I saw and knew the principal things and persons worth knowing and seeing. Passing under Aetna and a full view of Syracuse and Malta, we came to Tripoli, Sept. 26th. We staid but one day, just to exchange salutes & presents.
We did not go on shore, but the prospect of minarets and camels and palm-trees and the great desert bounding the horizon with a yellow line—was novel and interesting. After being driven about the lesser Syrtis, and back to Malta and Aetna, we weathered Cape Bon, Oct. 1, and anchored in the bay of Tunis, before the ruins of ancient Carthage. These I explored with feelings time fails me to tell and I refer you to Dr. Shaw and Chateaubriand.

We arrived at Algiers Oct. 12th, where I was hospitably entertained at the house of Mr. Shuler. It is a most singular place; but for description of it, wait till you see my face and journal. Mr. Shuler left them, and is now on board our ship. If we are not at war, we are hardly at peace with them. Lord Exmouth's attack was terrible. The batteries were much injured, but were nearly repaired when I saw them, the Algerines are so naïve like. We next set our faces towards Gibraltar, but, on account of adverse winds, tarried a day at Malaga. We were quarantined of course, but I leaped on to the strand, just to say I had been in Spain. The cathedral, you know, is celebrated. It has a magnificent appearance and is hardly less than St. Paul's.
Our passage from Malaga to Gibraltar, (60 miles) was one continued succession of violent squalls for four days, we being always in sight of the rock.
We leave this place shortly and proceed again up the Mediterranean, destination not known. It is said we shall go first to Mahon. We expect to go where we went before, and also to ports in France and Spain. I have seen Boston papers to the middle of September. You know as much probably as I do, about the chance of a war with Spain and Algiers and of the commissioners to make a new treaty with the latter. We do not expect fighting and hope to return home next summer.

Land for Sale.
I will sell my tract of Land situate in Prince William County, Virginia, containing 500 acres, two thirds of which is in wood, and the remainder in meadow and arable land. This land lies contiguous to the lands of the late Richard Kent and Colonel Gerard Alexander, and in the immediate vicinity of three mercantile mills. There are on the premises several stone quarries of excellent building stone, and it is believed there is a bed of iron ore on one part of the farm.
The improvements are an overseer's house, granaries and other out houses—timber has been prepared for building a dwelling house which may likewise be had.
The purchaser can also be accommodated with about twenty NEGROES, among which are a carpenter, a good cook and excellent seamstress, the others are working hands—together with horses, cattle, sheep, & farming utensils of every description. There are on the premises an excellent orchard of peach and plum trees and common apples.
A long credit will be given to the purchaser, on giving good security and paying the interest punctually.

The Life of Patrick Henry.
PROPOSAL.
By James Webster, of Philadelphia, for publishing by Subscription, THE LIFE OF
The late Patrick Henry.
Containing many of his Speeches, &c.
Embellished with a Likeness: By Wm.
Wier, Esq. of Richmond. (Va.)
Extract from the Post Folio for August, 1815.
"It is not without a sentiment of sincere regret that we witness, in the following proposal, arrangements making by a competent hand, to do justice to the character of one of the most worthy and distinguished of our countrymen. As a statesman, a civilian, an orator and a patriot, Patrick Henry was entitled to stand in the foremost rank. Nor do his merits claim an inferior station as a firm, an honest, and an honorable man. He was one of those worthies on whose purity suspicion could never fix a stain.
"If no one did much for Mr Henry's character while living, accident has not been wanting in its favors to his posthu-mous fame: for to have found such a biographer as Mr. Wier, so competent as a writer, and so peculiarly well qualified in every moral relation, is not the least fortunate incident in his history.
"In Mr. Wier's Life of Patrick Henry we are irresistibly impelled to expect much: the materials being excellent, and in great abundance, and the writer able and devoted to his subject. Nor do we think that the public will run any risk of being disappointed by hearing us company in our high expectations. We hope, and, indeed, have no doubt, that the work will receive a liberal patronage." CONDITIONS.
The work will be printed on a fine paper, in one octavo volume, and will contain from 350 to 460 pages.
It will be delivered to subscribers, in good call binding, at three dollars per copy. The price to non-subscribers will be three dollars and fifty cents.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines. For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age. They are excellently adapted to cure off superfluous bile and prevent its acid and bid secretions; to restore & amend the appetite; to produce a free perspiration; and thereby prevent colds which is so often a fatal consequence. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Tapeworm, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small man-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tinea, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums, itching in the nose, and about the seat of convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and rigors of chint—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the inferior part of our citizens, and likewise the mildest and most safe remedy known, and has restored youth and strength a great number of persons in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes from the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurf, tetters, ring worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet it effects a speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which is suffered to accumulate, never fails to insure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is a most valuable and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile excesses, residence in climates unfavorable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, any other destructive intemperance, and the diseases peculiar to females at certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

A sovereign remedy for Colds, obstructed Coughs, Asthma, sore throats, approaching Consumptions, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermitent fevers.

Han's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 30 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets, as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property. All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.
